ABOUT ME

Self description

I'm a 20 years old student at Politehnica Univerity of Timisoara , being passionate about web development , sites creation , OOP programing , integrated circuits , PCBs . I'm also good at understanding new concepts , and I consider myself more like a self-taught programmer , my curiosity being a good drive for learning .

PROJECTS

08/02/2022 – CURRENT Personal blog

" Lemon Blog " is a personal blog witch I created this year because I wanted to learn new things by permanent update a page . It's a page with React.js as main framework , hosted on a free service named CloudFlare .
It is fully responsive , I had a lot to learn and work to make it happening but it works on every devices now .
It was my first site hosted , and a true daily challenge . Hardest part for me was figuring out how to link github and CloudFlare and getting a free domain for it or a paid one . But once I figured it the website only grew up until today and will grow more in future .
Some skills used are : HTML5 ,Javascript , CSS3 , React.js , Sass;
I update this daily , taking permanent feedback from my friends .
here is a link to it : " www.lemonblogs.net "
and a link to github of it : "https://github.com/DragosBobo/PersonalBlog "

Netflix clone

Netflix-clone , is a MERN application that imitates Netflix look and behaviour imprelenting many technologies for me .
I used this project to get a better understanding of MongoDB , Express , ReactJS and Node.JS .
It wasn't an academic project , just my desire of sites creation , and it was done by doing an online course of MERN and a lot of searching .
